

MACS for MOMs TeleECHO™ Clinic

Specially designed for providers in maternal healthcare settings

Providing collaborative medical education through web-based didactic presentations and case-based learning

Join us every 2nd Monday of the month from 12 pm to 1 pm for presentations and discussions with Drs. Katrina Mark, Lorraine Milio, and Christopher Welsh.

To register: <https://bit.ly/36dsONS>

Who Should Participate?

- OB/GYNs, Certified Nurse Midwives, physicians, nurse practitioners, nurses and physician assistants working in maternal healthcare
- Clinical directors of maternal practices
- Counselors and other staff in maternal healthcare

Benefits

- Monthly case-based learning sessions
- Consultation with experts and your peers on how to manage challenging cases
- Focus on patient-centered care, harm reduction and best practices
- Free CMEs/CEUs

2021 Maternal Health Curriculum

October 11 th	Introduction to Opiates and Pregnancy presented by L. Milio
November 8 th	Urine Drug Screening (Ethics, When appropriate, etc.) presented by C. Welsh
December 13 th	Marijuana and Pregnancy presented by K. Mark
January 10 th	Lactation and Postpartum Transition presented by L. Milio
February 14 th	Motivational Interviewing presented by C. Welsh
March 14 th	Tobacco and Pregnancy presented by K. Mark

1-855-337-MACS (6227)
macs.echo@som.umaryland.edu
www.macsformoms.org

